Is my child...a bully? What are the warning signs?

- Has a marked need to control and dominate others and situations.
- Takes pleasure in seeing a child (or animal) in distress.
- Has positive views towards violence.
- Damages another child's property or clothing.
- Is often aggressive towards adults - including teachers or parents.
- Taunts, intimidates or harasses.
- Is hot tempered, impulsive, easily frustrated.
- Targets those who are weaker or younger or animals.
- Often tests limits or break rules.
- Finds it difficult to see a situation from the other person's point of view.
- Excludes or shuns another child.
- Is good at talking their way out of difficult situations.
- Shows little sympathy toward others who are bullied.
- Is good at talking their way out of difficult situations.